

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Entrepreneur Magazine Ranks Guard-A-Kid in the Top Franchises

MIAMI, January, 2009 -- Guard-A-Kid, known for its innovative child identification and family safety products and services has been ranked by Entrepreneur magazine for the third year in a row. Entrepreneur Magazine's 30th annual franchise 500 listing was released this month and Guard-A-Kid has been ranked in the top 500 franchises, once again. Guard-A-Kid was ranked number 293 among Top 500 franchises. Entrepreneur also ranked Guard-A-Kid number 18 in Top 100 New Franchises, number 63 in Top 100 Low Cost Franchises and number 83 in the Top 100 Home Based Franchises.

"We are extremely proud to have received top 500 ranking for the third year in a row as well as top rankings in 3 other categories. With thousands of franchise systems worldwide it is an honor to be ranked among the top 500, for three years in a row, especially considering that we have only been franchising for less than 4 years", says Hossein Kasmai, Guard-A-Kid's CEO.

The company has surpassed its 140th franchise in less than four years and has expanded globally. With franchises in the United States, Canada, Guam, England, Ireland, Scotland, Taiwan and Nigeria, Guard-A-Kid has immediately become an internationally recognized company in the field of family safety.

Guard-A-Kid introduced the new line of SmartID products in 2008 which has revolutionized the family safety market. With such important products to offer, parents have the opportunity to protect their entire family. Guard-A-Kid feels that their new SmartID concept will sweep the world.
